RE: Suspect in bank robbery identified

On February 1st at 1254 hours, the Southern Worcester County Communications Center received a hold up alarm from the Hometown Bank located at 4 Gore Rd. Webster Police officers were dispatched and it was confirmed that there was a robbery that had just occurred. There was no weapon shown and the suspect, described as a white male wearing a hoodie and sunglasses, had fled in a smaller red car towards the area of Route 395.

After consultation with Detectives from the Connecticut State Police at Troop D in Danielson, it was determined that the suspect was in fact Eric Sheridan, 36, with a last known address of 109.5 Smith Street in Putnam Connecticut. Sheridan is currently wanted for another bank robbery in Putnam at the Stop and Shop on January 17th.

No weapon was shown in this robbery, however a note was passed which Webster Police have. An undisclosed amount of money was taken by Sheridan.

A warrant for Sheridan's arrest was going to be requested by Webster Police Detectives from Dudley District Court for Unarmed Robbery and Larceny over $250.00.

Anyone that has information pertaining to the whereabouts of Sheridan, may call Webster Police at 508-943-1212, or leave anonymous tips at 508-949-3874, or through their website www.websterpolice.com
