RE: Armed Robbery Arrest

On May 10, 2016 at about 1830 hours, The Webster Police were dispatched to Sunnyside Farms for a reported armed robbery involving a firearm. Police found a 20 year old male who stated that a minivan had pulled up to him and a backseat passenger, then opened the side door and pointed a firearm at him and demanded his backpack and other belongings. The van and its occupants then left the area.

Responding officers, after a brief investigation, determined the van may be headed towards Auburn and notified the Auburn Police of the description of the van, and the possible people involved and Auburn dispatchers were able to obtain a registration plate.

Auburn police located the van the following day and stopped it. Webster Police responded and, as a result, placed Nicole Vaudreuil, 11/4/96 8 Renaud Auburn, and Kendra Depiro 3/12/98 14 Timrod Drive, Worcester under arrest. A warrant will also be requested for Kevon Simpson 12/18/96 LKA 86 Penn Ave, Worcester. Depiro and Vaudreuil will be arraigned at Dudley District Court today.

All three were charged with Larceny over $250
Armed Robbery
Conspiracy
Kidnapping with a firearm (for confining the victim from leaving)
