RE: Arrest in Armed Robbery

At approximately 2150 hours on July 8th, Webster Police received a call from the clerk at Jimmie's Convenience store reporting he had just been robbed at knife point. Officers Joshua Collins and James Young Jr. arrived on scene and obtained a description of the robber, as well as the license plate and description of the car which he was driving when he left. He did obtain over $200 from the clerk.

An alert citizen spotted the vehicle on Maynard Avenue after overhearing a broadcast given out to area departments over a police scanner and called the police department. After a brief investigation conducted by Officers Bruce Hamm, Donald Southall, and Michael Lee responded to that location and eventually arrested James Paul Ingram 4/17/86 60 Old Spencer Rd. Charlton Ma. Recovered in the investigation was cell phone used to call the store a short while before the robbery occurred.

Ingram was charged with the following:

- Armed Robbery
- Assault
- Larceny over $250

A second female may face additional charges.
